

the Jane Goodall Institute Italia

SUSTAINABLE EXPERIENCE in Tanzania, Kigoma

For more information please visit:
Istituto Jane Goodall Italia Onlus
Viale Marco Polo, 84 - 00154 Roma (RM)
 +39 06 36001799
info@janegoodall.it
<https://www.janegoodall.it>

You want to combine holidays with helping in a community?

Make a difference by doing
a Sustainable Experience
in the heart of Africa!

It is a wonderful way to explore the beautiful nature of Tanzania and as an sustainable tourist you will experience an authentic cultural exchange.

Combining holidays with volunteering is an unforgettable experience and definitely worth it.

The Volunteer's Eco-House hosts 3 double rooms and 2 rooms each with 4 beds and a simple bathroom.

It serves a hearty breakfast and on request, meals and lunches. Moreover the house is equipped with wireless Internet connection.

VOLUNTEER GUEST HOUSE IN TANZANIA

The Jane Goodall Institute Italia main project is the Sanganigwa Children's Home in Tanzania and offers a welcoming Guest Eco-House for Volunteers.

The Guest House is situated at Lake Tanganyika and is only 22 km away from the Gombe National Park, where Jane Goodall first started her behavioral observations of chimpanzees and where today visitors can observe them in the wild.

Further services are transfer to and from the Kigoma airport and provides information for excursions.

The minimum donation for overnight stay (breakfast included) is 20 US $ per person. Donations will contribute to the maintenance of the children homes.

